

Abuse It and Lose It

Driving is a privilege, not a right. The parent or guardian who signed the financial responsibility statement can have your license cancelled or suspended by completing the DMV Minor Affidavit.

The courts can also suspend your current or future driving privileges for the same reasons as adult licenses, and also for alcohol/drug convictions, firearms violations or habitual truancy.